

NAB'S petition 04-160 is ridiculous. Having XM and Sirius provide such services as their weather/traffic coverage of major cities can help travelers plan their travels more efficiently and safely. I feel the FM channels should do the proper choice in making their stations more competitive and worth listening rather than whining to government to prevent other venues as competition.